EXPLANATION

In 2007, the Department contracted with SunGard/Performance PLUS (formerly Performance Pathways) to implement their Performance Tracker, Assessment Builder and Tech Paths software. This software is available to all educators and enables districts and schools to analyze state and local assessment data in conjunction with student demographics, enrollment and academic data. Schools can also develop and administer local assessments as well as import data from national assessments they conduct locally.

Also, in 2012, the Department received a three year SLDS grant with three major initiatives: 1) develop tools to help schools evaluate effective educators, 2) develop tools to allow a variety of stakeholders access to individual and/or aggregate student data to improve student education and 3) develop tools as part of an early warning system and college readiness system to help ensure students are successful in K-12 schools and prepared for college. Training is a major component of all three grant initiatives. The SLDS Grant provides the funding for the PerformancePlus tool and also provides funds for training.

Donna Beauregard has been organizing and managing data teams throughout the state. She trains staff to understand how the data can be used to make ongoing decisions that will support student growth. Donna will use this experience to assist school and district staff to use data as a component of teacher and leader evaluations. Donna Beauregard will provide training on the data use and analysis tools available to schools and districts throughout the state.

An advertisement was placed in the Union Leader on February 7, 8 and 10 and posted on the Department website from February 6, 2013 through March 4, 2013. The Department received 9 responses to the RFP. Department staff members Irene Koffink and Virginia Clifford, and DOE consultant Michael Schwartz, who are knowledgeable about the services needed, scored the proposal and interviewed the top candidates. The Department plans to contract with the top 5 candidates and Donna Beauregard is in the top 5.
