EXPLANATION

The New Hampshire Association of School Principals (NHASP) is a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the quality of education for all learners in New Hampshire. The organization offers mentoring training and services, professional development opportunities, and a variety of leadership services designed to meet the needs of elementary, middle and high school administrators in all areas.

The Department of Education has been invited to participate in the NHASP Leadership Academy. This year's academy is being held June 27-29, 2022, at the Sheraton Portsmouth Harborside in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

The NHASP Leadership Academy is the premier educational event of the summer. Appropriate audiences will include school and system level leaders, department heads/deans, curriculum leaders, aspiring leaders and retirees throughout NH. For the first time since 2018, school leaders will have the opportunity engage in state-wide professional networking with one another during this in-person event. This event will be featuring exemplary national and state presenters. Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in diversified professional development offerings. These sessions will provide our leaders with the learning and resources needed to remain current and proactive in navigating the current changes and challenges they face in the field. Captivating keynote and breakout sessions are planned throughout the conference and will feature Adam Welcome, a nationally sought-after speaker, focusing on innovative learning and technology, and national educator networking. Breakout sessions will include topics such as Social and Emotional Learning and Mental Health, instructional leadership and innovation, career pathways, competency based learning, and restorative practice just to name a few. Attendees will also participate in a variety of round table topic discussions, with thought partners, to support them in the analysis of various problems of practice. Title II, Part A funds will contribute to presenter fees, materials and expenses for the academy.

The Department of Education will use this event as an opportunity to collaborate with and provide updates about the Department's priorities to school leaders throughout the State.

In the event Federal Funds no longer become available, General Funds will not be requested to support this program.

Respectfully submitted,

Frank Edelblut
Commissioner of Education

The mission of New Hampshire Association of School Principals is to foster the development of highly engaged, inspired and innovative educational leaders for the advancement of educational excellence and equity for all learners. We believe in a future where all school leaders-in commitment to the success of every student-will leverage the power of collaborative relationships to advance the profession and will serve as vital and supportive advocates for educational equity and opportunity.

NHASP Leadership Academy is the premier educational event of the summer. Appropriate audiences include: school and system level leaders, department heads/deans, curriculum leaders, aspiring leaders and retirees throughout NH. For the first time since 2018 school leaders will have the opportunity engage in state-wide professional networking with one another during this in-person event. Because of this, we are anticipating maximum attendance upwards of 200 people. This event will be featuring exemplary national and state presenters. Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in diversified professional development offerings. These sessions will provide our leaders with the learning and resources needed to remain current and proactive in navigating the current changes and challenges they face in the field. Captivating keynote and breakout sessions are planned throughout the conference. Featuring Adam Welcome, nationally sought after speaker focusing on innovative learning and technology, and national educator networking. Adam is a published author, and a 20 to Watch for the National School Board Association. Breakout sessions will include topics such as SEL and Mental Health, equity and inclusion, instructional leadership and innovation, career pathways, competency based learning, and restorative practice just to name a few. Attendees will also participate in a variety of round table topic discussions, with thought partners, to support them in the analysis of various problems of practice.
