ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

New Hampshire Council for Responsible Gambling

The New Hampshire Council for Responsible Gambling (a non-profit public council) was created by RSA 338-B. For seven years prior to the council's creation, a private non-profit council under the name of the New Hampshire Council on Problem Gambling, engaged in the education and support of problem gamblers. In January of 2020, the Governor and Executive Council appointed five members from the private council as members of the public council as they were the foremost experts in New Hampshire on this subject. Funding of the New Hampshire Council for Responsible Gambling is part of Chapter 338-B. The membership remains the same as stated in the organizational chart above.

Our members continue to maintain the daily work done by the New Hampshire Council on Problem Gambling and with the oversight provided by the New Hampshire Council for Responsible Gambling. The New Hampshire Council for Responsible Gambling is administratively attached, yet separate from the New Hampshire Lottery Commission. The Council's progress this past year began in earnest with funding and a contract award to implement meaningful programming and services
