EXPLANATION

This position currently ends on June 30, 2024, and is assigned to the Sununu Youth Services Center. This position is responsible for directing aspects of residential facility management. The residential facility provides rehabilitative services to children and youth throughout a structurally secure facility. Responsibilities include residential facility management, program supervision and residential operations supervision in order to address youth treatment needs and issues and ensure the State's duty to protect, care for, and rehabilitate children under state and federal mandates of the Division for Children, Youth and Families. The 21-1010 COUNSELORS-6 position is an integral position within the facility and it is necessary to maintain safety and security.

Respectfully Submitted,

FOR
