EXPLANATION

43-6010 ADMIN ASSTS-5, Position #8T3192, currently ends on October 30, 2024. This position is assigned to the NH Council on Developmental Disabilities.

The NH Council on Developmental Disabilities is actively involved in supporting policies and initiatives that remove barriers and promote opportunities in all areas of life through advocacy, capacity building, and systemic change activities for those in the developmental disabilities community. The specific areas of focus include: healthcare, employment, the direct support workforce, children and education supports and services, and quality community and health services.

Given the scope and importance of the work that is undertaken by the Council, the position provides valuable support for the Director of Policy and Planning. This request will allow for the provision of continued support while the Council seeks to covert this temporary position to a permanent position, enabling involvement in a broader and more comprehensive manner.

Respectfully submitted,

Isadora Rodriguez-Legendre
Executive Director
