This education will benefit the Department of Health and Human Services and Krystle Mallory by improving the overall efficiency of the employee's work. This in turn will allow Krystle to support the Public Health Nurse Unit and the overall responsibility of DHHS to "work to prevent disease and to protect and improve the health and safety of all citizens through regulatory and health promotion efforts".

The course, Healthcare Informatics, examines the history and current state of healthcare and how the industry uses information systems. Krystle will develop comprehensive knowledge of information systems, such as the electronic medical record (EMR), laboratory and radiology systems, trends in new practices, such as telemedicine and home healthcare, and how they function in various healthcare settings to improve patient care. Completing this course is part of Krystle's pursuit to obtain a Master's Degree in Public Health.

Krystle Mallory has been employed with DHHS for ten (10) years, two (2) years in the current position of 21-1090 MISC SOC SVC SPECS-6 (Infectious Disease Nurse Manager) with the Division of Public Health Services (DPHS). As the Infectious Disease Nurse Manager, Krystle serves as a subject matter expert for Infectious Diseases for the Disease Investigation Team within the Infectious Disease Prevention, Investigation, and Case Services Section (IDPICSS). This employee provides direct consultation services to health agencies and organizations to include providing information about policies and procedures, infectious diseases control and prevention guidelines, control measures and interpretations of state law.

The Department of Health and Human Services encourages and supports employees who wish to further their professional growth through continuing education in disciplines that are mutually advantageous. Successful completion of the courses will add to the overall strength of the Department to perform its mission to the residents of New Hampshire.

This course will not be taken on State time.

Attached is a fully executed Tuition Agreement for your review.

Respectfully submitted,
