EXPLANATION

This position is essential for the effective and efficient operations of our State Parks. This position directly supports our Special Use Permit Program and is the primary contact for applicants and permittees. They also draft contractual documents, monitor compliance, and conduct review prior to issuance and approval of such permits. Additionally they are responsible for any data entry and reporting required of such Park programs. For this reason, we seek to continue employment of the position.

Respectfully submitted,

 Adam J. Crepeau
 Interim Commissioner
