EXPLANATION

The Department of Education, Bureau of Special Education, is required by RSA 21-N:4 V and U.S. Code Title 20 U.S.C. 122/e-3 to provide a process to resolve complaints between any local education agency and individuals or organization who believe federal law(s) or regulation(s) have been violated. Contractors will provide the investigation reports for the process of complaints received by the Department.

A Request for Proposals (RFP) was posted on the Department of Education and Department of Administrative Services websites on February 20, 2026. The Department received seven (7) proposals from the issuance of the Request for Proposals “Special Education Complaint Investigators”.

A review committee consisting of 1 Special Education Complaint Coordinator, 1 investigator with Educator Misconduct, and the Deputy Commissioner scored the proposals. Ms. Cline’s proposal met the criteria of the Request for Proposals (Attachment A).

This contract is one of three (3) to provide services as a Special Education Complaint Investigator who will be responsible for conducting special education complaint investigations across the State of New Hampshire; investigating alleged violations of Special Education law and issuing a written report with recommendations to the Commissioner of Education.

The Department of Education would like to contract with Chrisine Cline as she offers over 18 years of specialized experience in special education compliance and dispute resolution, serving as an IDEA Complaint Investigator and Educational Program Specialist at the Ohio Department of Education’s Office for Exceptional Children. Ms. Cline has conducted formal investigations under federal and state regulations, developed findings of fact, issued compliance determinations, and monitored corrective actions. Their expertise spans regulatory interpretation, legal analysis, mediation program administration, and stakeholder communication. Ms. Cline’s proven ability to analyze evidence, draft clear legal findings, and provide technical assistance to families and districts demonstrates the thoroughness and professionalism required for the role. This extensive background makes Ms. Cline exceptionally qualified to serve as a Special Education State Complaint Investigator

The investigation process is evaluated by the Department on an individual complaint case basis.
