EXPLANATION

Moose Plate Funds are intended to promote the use and conservation of cultural resources in New Hampshire and to preserve the cultural heritage that belongs to all New Hampshire citizens by providing for the preservation of publicly owned historic properties. There are two grant requests within this requested action: building preservation and art conservation.

The first grant request is for the preservation and conservation of the original plaster and electrical in the historic Plainfield Town Hall. The Town Hall was constructed in 1798 in a location two miles from its present site. In 1810, it was moved to the town cemetery and in 1846 moved to its present location. The Plainfield Village Town Hall was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1985 and is also included on the National Register of Historic Theatre Buildings. The Plainfield Village Town Hall is the only building in the village that can hold more than 50 people. The seating capacity is 170. Since 1916 when the stage and Stage Set were added to the town hall, it has been regularly utilized by the community for performances, dances, weddings, fundraisers, etc. Usage has increased dramatically in the past few years due to the increased publicity and activities.

The updating of the electrical system in the Town Hall helps to preserve the historic building as parts of the current system are original from 1916 and the updates allow for fire safety. The conservation of the plaster section of the historic building and stage area showcases and preserves the original construction method and artistic element of the historic building.

The second grant request is for the cleaning of the Maxfield Parish Stage Set. The Cornish Art Colony began in 1874, with over 100 members eventually residing in both Cornish and Plainfield. Artist Stephen Parrish, a member of the Cornish Art Colony, lived in Plainfield and invited his son, artist Maxfield. Maxfield Parrish also lived there for 68 years. In 1916, William Howard Hart, a stage designer and a member of the Cornish Art Colony, contributed a stage added onto the Plainfield Village Town Hall. He asked Maxfield Parrish to design the Stage Set for the first play to be performed on the stage – "The Woodland Princess." The Stage Set consists of a backdrop of Mt. Ascutney, Vermont, six wings with woodland scenes and overhead leaves. The linen material was produced in the Indian Head Mills in Nashua, New Hampshire. Per Richard Stoddard, an authority on American theatre scenery: "The Parrish set has considerable historical importance. Very little actual scenery has survived from the American theatre before 1920, and none have the distinction of being designed by a famous American artist." It remains one of the only surviving examples of early American stage scenery created by a famous American artist and represents an important cultural legacy of the Cornish Art Colony.

These grant requests both help to protect and preserve both the historic cultural facility and the Maxfield Parrish Stage Set so future generations can continue to benefit from them. The long-term survival of the stage set depends on the condition of the building itself, making preservation of both inseparable.

The Attorney General's Office has reviewed and approved the grant agreements as to form, substance, and execution.

Respectfully submitted,

Interim Commissioner

In the event of a reduction or termination of those funds, the State shall have the right to withhold payment until such funds become available, if ever, and shall have the right to terminate this Agreement immediately upon giving the Grantee notice of such termination.
11. EVENT OF DEFAULT: REMEDIES.
- 11.1. Any one or more of the following acts or omissions of the Grantee shall constitute an event of default hereunder (hereinafter referred to as "Events of Default"):
- 11.1.1 Failure to perform the Project satisfactorily or on schedule; or
- 11.1.2 Failure to submit any report required hereunder; or
- 11.1.3 Failure to maintain, or permit access to, the records required hereunder; or

- 11.2.2 Give the Grantee a written notice specifying the Event of Default and suspending all payments to be made under this Agreement and ordering that the portion of the Grant Amount which would otherwise accrue to the Grantee during the period from the date of such notice until such time as the State determines that the Grantee has cured the Event of Default shall never be paid to the Grantee; and
- 11.2.3 Set off against any other obligation the State may owe to the Grantee any damages the State suffers by reason of any Event of Default; and
- 11.2.4 Treat the agreement as breached and pursue any of its remedies at law or in equity, or both.

- 12.2. In the event of Termination under paragraphs 10 or 12.4 of these general provisions, the approval of such a Termination Report by the State shall entitle the Grantee to receive that portion of the Grant amount earned to and including the date of termination.
- 12.3. In the event of Termination under paragraphs 10 or 12.4 of these general provisions, the approval of such a Termination Report by the State shall in no event relieve the Grantee from any and all liability for damages sustained or incurred by the State as a result of the Grantee's breach of its obligations hereunder.
- 12.4. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, either the State or, except where notice default has been given to the Grantee hereunder, the Grantee, may terminate this Agreement without cause upon thirty (30) days written notice.

Nancy Norwalk – Project Director

Born and raised in Claremont, NH.

Graduated-Northampton Commercial College, Northampton, MA

Moved to Washington, DC, worked at three government agencies—Department of the Navy, Federal Aviation Agency, Agency for International Development..

Back to New Hampshire, I was employed in two very interesting and wonderful positions. Requirements for both were part time. From 1978-2016, I was the (part time, afternoons) director of the Philip Read Memorial Library in Plainfield. During my tenure at the library, an addition was added to the 100-year-old building. My other employment, from 1985-2015 (mornings) was at Kimball Union Academy, a private high school in Plainfield, as the database manager in the alumni office.

Being the director of the library, it was natural to become involved in the community—volunteering in many organizations and for town projects. I enjoyed them all. Some are:

Former projects:

Co-editor and one of the writers for “Choice White Pines and Good Land, a History of Plainfield and Meriden, NH.”

On the first committee for the substantial renovation of Plainfield’s two town halls in 1993.

The indexer of “Footsteps of the Past, Images of Cornish, NH, and The Cornish Colony.”

Currently

Co-chairman of the Maxfield Parrish Stage Set Committee and on the Plainfield Village Town Hall Committee. Both groups are charged with the preservation and maintenance of the Stage Set and the Town Hall.

Co-editor of a monthly community newsletter.

President of the Friends of the Philip Read Memorial Library and a volunteer.

Archivist of the Plainfield Historical Society.

I was honored to receive the “Stephen H. Taylor Award for Community Service” in 2012.

Upon my retirement as library director, the Special Collection Room at the Philip Read Memorial Library was dedicated to me. The collection includes Cornish Colony and local author books, media, and ephemera.

I was a member of the Izmiria Oriental Dancers for 22 years.

I receive no salary/compensation from the Plainfield Historical Society.
